

Ohio Attorney General Collections

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How long does it take the court to receive payments from Ohio Attorney General?
It takes seven to ten business days to receive payments.

How do I pay my fine when it has been sent to Ohio Attorney General?
You may access the AGO's on-line payment system 24/7 or contact Collections Enforcement Monday through Friday from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm. Information is listed below.

Website: You can use the website link below to safely and confidentially pay outstanding obligations that have been certified to the Ohio Attorney General's Office at www.ohioattorneygeneral.gov/business/collections/pay-online.

Phone: (888) 871-8838.

Important: The court does not accept confirmation receipts as proof of payment. License forfeiture or registration blocks will only be removed once funds are received directly from The Ohio Attorney General.